

Dr. KlarX™ SeptiFresh Laundry

Dr. KlarX™ SeptiFresh Laundry Detergent is the ideal solution for eco-conscious consumers who need powerful cleaning without compromising their septic systems or the environment. Engineered for use in RVs, boats, camping setups, and homes with septic tanks, Dr. KlarX™ SeptiFresh Laundry combines advanced liquid detergent technology with septic-safe chemistry to deliver reliable performance in even the most sensitive plumbing conditions. Whether you're off-grid or just off the beaten path, it's designed to work with all fabric types and water conditions, giving you clean clothes and peace of mind.

Unlike conventional detergents that can disrupt septic balance or contribute to buildup, SeptiFresh actively supports system health while tackling tough stains. Its concentrated formula means you use less per load, and its environmentally responsible ingredients ensure you're making a smart choice for your clothes, your plumbing, and the planet. SeptiFresh isn't just laundry detergent—it's a smarter way to clean, wherever life takes you.
