

NewEraAgri™ SweetYield Brix

NewEraAgri™ SweetYield Brix delivers bio-available sugars that energize plant systems and accelerate growth. Sourced from cane molasses, these complex carbohydrates fuel metabolic activity and support vigorous development of roots, stems, leaves, and blossoms. Whether you're growing fruit trees, vegetables, or broad-acre crops, NewEraAgri™ SweetYield Brix helps plants build tissue efficiently, boost glucose levels, and thrive with greater vitality.

Versatile and easy to use, NewEraAgri™ SweetYield Brix fits seamlessly into any nutrient program. It's water-soluble, compatible with irrigation systems and fertilizers, and effective across all soil types and crop categories. With low application rates and fast uptake, it conditions soil, energizes microbes, and strengthens root systems—giving growers consistent results and streamlined performance across fields and seasons.
